DEMOCRATIC PLATFORMS

Territorial, Adopted at Ogden (Sept. 5th

The democratic party of Utah in convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and justice of the people—standing upon the constitution as a foundation and limitation of the powers of the gov-ernment as well as the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen—congratulate the territory—now soon to be a state— on the assured success of the policy adopted by the national organization as laid down in all its piatforms.

For the democracy of the entire territory we reaffirm our fath in the permanence of lederal union and our fevotion to the constitution and the laws; and declare as cardinal doctrines of democracy:

First—Absolute acquiescence in the will of the majority as a vital principle of the democratic party-Second—Total separation of church and state for the sake alike of civil and religious liberty.

Third-The liberty of the individual unvexed by sumptuary laws.

Fourth—Support by the state of the public schools.

Fifth—The supremacy of the civil over the military power. Sixth—Exact equality of all persons efore the law. Seventh-The right to a free ballot the right preservative of all other rights. Eighth-That our democratic party

Gold and silver coin to be a the first Louisiana woman to enter the full and legal tender for all debts pub-

he and private.
We denounce the republican party for the demonstruction of silver in 1873 and for its repeated acts of hostility toward its remonetization.
We call attention to the fact that the country was in the throes of a financial panic when the democratic adminis-tration assumed control in 1893, and we congratulate the people upon the approaching reign of prosperity as a result of a democratic reform of the tariff; and also to the fact that factories, foundaries and mills have re-umed work since the repeal of the McKinley law, and to the constantly advancing wages of workingmen in almost every

b industry.
We again express our hearty appreciation of the democratic congress and president in providing an enabling act by virtue of which Utah is about to ason the public business within proper limits of economy, despite the almost unanimous opposition of a republican majority. And we favor the adoption of the proposed constitution.

We congratulate the women of Utah upon their admission to sound political upon their admission to equal political $1.95 rights with men under the provisions of the constitution proposed, and the

We hereby endorse and reaffirm the platform adopted at the convention held in Ogden on September 5, 1895. We cordially and heartily approve of the action of said convention in nomi-nating Joseph L. Rawlins and Moses Thatcher for United States senators for Utah, and demand that the mem-bers of the legislature from Utah other question pertaining to cost and ounty use every honorable means to secure their election. With heartfelt gratitude we appreclate the munificent donation of public lands granted by the federal government to the new state of Utah, and urge upon the legislature the necessity of passing such laws and adopting such measures as will secure to the state the most valuable public lands within the state to the extent of all grants made to it, and its public institutions. We demand the passage of such laws as will provide for the sale of state lands to actual settlers only, in small holdings; for the selection of suitable sites for reservoirs; for the preserva tion from destruction or waste of the timber on the public lands; for the improvement of arid lands, and for the development of all the natural products of state lands. We favor retention by the state of all its lands not susceptible of immediate improvement, and the leasing by the state of improvable lands, whenever such leasing will tend to their more rapid and efficient improvement and development.

We favor a revision of the laws of Utah on irrigation. First, to secure and irrevocably fix all existing rights to the use of water; and second, to provide for an incressed supply of water and to distribute all the available water fairly and justly among all persons entitled to the second of the by virtue of which Utah is about to assume its position as a sovereign state. We commend the action of the democratic members of the constitutional convention in surrounding the taxing and revenue-raising power of the state by such restrictions and limitations as to preclude any squandering of public property in aid of private enterprises, and to confine the expenses of carrying on the public business within proper limits of economy, despite the almost unanimous opposition of a republican majority.
